1995 MEDIA GUIDE

Dodger Rookies of the Year

The Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) unanimously voted Raul Mondesi N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1994, giving the organization three straight winners and 14 overall.

Today, the award is named after Jackie Robinson in recognition of the great Brooklyn star and first recipient of the award. The Dodgers are the only M.L. team to have four consecutive winners from 1979-82.

The Yankees and Orioles are tied for second with 7 awards each. The 1986-88 Oakland A's are the only other team to have won the award three straight years.

PETER O'MALLEY, President

The 1995 season marks Peter O'Malley's 26th year as president of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Appointed on March 17, 1970, he holds the distinction as the longest active president in Major League Baseball. This season also marks the 46th year of the O'Malley family's ownership of the club. The late Walter O'Malley served as president of the Dodgers from 1951-1970.

During Peter O'Malley's tenure as president, the Dodgers have enjoyed tremendous success, finishing first or second 17 times in 25 years. O'Malley began his career with the Dodgers in 1962, when he was named Director of Dodgertown, the Dodgers' spring training camp in Vero Beach, Florida. He was appointed president and general manager of the Spokane Indians, the Dodgers' Triple-A farm club of the Pacific Coast League in 1965. O'Malley moved to Los Angeles in 1967 when he was named vice president of stadium operations. Two years later, he was appointed executive vice president.

O'Malley studied at LaSalle Military Academy in Oakdale, NY. He majored in Business Law at the Wharton School of Business and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics in 1960.

O'Malley has enthusiastically supported international baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. The Los Angeles Dodgers have sent players and coaches to many countries and hosted numerous baseball exchanges both at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, Florida and in Los Angeles. O'Malley has played an active role in developing baseball and goodwill in Korea, Japan, People's Republic of China, Mexico, Nicaragua, Chinese Taipei, Russia and the Dominican Republic. The tradition will continue in 1995 when the Samsung Lions of Korea make their fourth trip to Dodgertown during spring training. At the invitation of O'Malley, Dodgertown has previously served as the host site for nine professional baseball teams from Asia which include Japan's Tokyo Giants (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1981), Japan's Chunichi Dragons (1988) and Korea's Samsung Lions (1985, 1992 and 1993). The first amateur team invited to Dodgertown was Japan's Waseda University in 1994.

O'Malley is also committed to involvement in the Los Angeles community. He is a director of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and holds memberships on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles-Guangzhou (People's Republic of China) Sister City Association, the Music Center of Los Angeles County Board of Governors, the Board of Directors of The Tidings newspaper, the Amateur Athletic Foundation and the Police Memorial Foundation. He became the first president of a non-Korean privately held Los Angeles company to join the Korean American Chamber of Commerce of L.A. on July 28, 1993.

He is also president of the Little League Baseball Foundation, and a Director of the Jackie Robinson Foundation in New York. In 1991, O'Malley was honored as the Corporate Executive of the Year by the United States Baseball Federation. In 1992, he received the first distinguished Little League Ambassador Award at the 19th International Congress of Little League Baseball in Boston, and at the 1994 American Baseball Coaches Association, he was honored with "The Uncommon Service to Baseball" award.

FRED CLAIRE, Executive Vice President

Fred Claire begins his 27th season with the Dodgers and his ninth in charge of player personnel decisions. The Dodger general manager is the dean of the current National League GMs with the longest continuous active service time and second in the major leagues behind Sandy Alderson of the Oakland A's. Appointed in April 1987, Claire has helped revive the Dodgers' player development system. Under his tenure the past three N.L. Rookies of the Year, Eric Karros, Mike Piazza and Raul Mondesi, have advanced through the Dodger minor leagues as part of an impressive core of 31 homegrown players now listed on the Dodgers' 40-man roster.

In Claire's second season as head of player personnel, the Dodgers won the 1988 World Championship with several key players he acquired, including Kirk Gibson, Mickey Hatcher, Rick Dempsey, Alfredo Griffin, John Shelby and Tim Belcher. Following the season, Claire was named as The Sporting News "Executive of the Year." Claire became the fifth Dodger executive in history to win the honor, joining Larry MacPhail (1939), Branch Rickey (1947), Walter O'Malley (1955) and Buzzie Bavasi (1959).

Appointed to executive vice president in October 1982, Claire became the Dodgers' first executive vice president since Peter O'Malley served in the same capacity during the 1969-70 seasons.

Claire joined the Dodgers in 1969 as the director of publicity. He was appointed vice president, public relations and promotions in February 1975. Under Claire's leadership, the public relations and marketing departments received the Diogenes Award for ethics in marketing by the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of Los Angeles and the Dodgers were saluted for achievements in marketing by Major League Baseball and the Advertising Club of Los Angeles. Claire received the Robert O. Fishel Award in 1986, an award presented annually to a Major League Baseball executive for public relations excellence.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Claire spent 12 years in the newspaper field as a sports editor, columnist and baseball writer with the Long Beach Press Telegram, the Pomona Progress Bulletin and the Whittier News. Claire is a 1957 graduate of San Jose State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism. He also holds an Associate of Arts degree from Mt. San Antonio College and has been honored by the college as an outstanding alumnus. Claire also attended El Camino College and in January 1989 was named the college's first alumnus of the year. In January 1990, Claire received the Award of Honor from the American Baseball Coaches Association. Claire has served Major League Baseball as a member of the Board of Directors of Baseball Properties, as a member of the Broadcast Advisory Group, and as a member of the Baseball Operations Committee.

- ♦ Lasorda has managed in four World Series (1977, 1978, 1981, 1988) and six League Championship Series (1977, 1978, 1981, 1983, 1985, 1988).
- ♦ The Dodgers have split the four World Series skippered by Lasorda, winning in 1981 and 1988.
- ♦ He has managed the Dodgers to a 4-2 record in LCS play and is tied with WHITEY HERZOG for the most LCS games managed in baseball at 30...he also holds the major league record by managing the Dodgers to 16 wins in LCS games.

MANAGING THE ALL-STARS...

- ♦ Lasorda has guided the N.L. All-Stars on four occasions: 1978, 1979, 1982, 1989 and served as a coach in 1977, 1983, 1984, 1986 and 1993.
- ♦ He is 3-1 in All-Star Games managed.

THE FIRST TWO YEARS...

- ♦ In 1977, Lasorda became only the 19th manager in major league history to win a league title in the first year of managing in the majors.
- ♦ Repeated the league title in 1978 and thus became only the second manager in N.L. history to win league titles in his first two full years of managing...the only other to do it in the N.L. was St. Louis' GABBY STREET in 1931...A.L. managers to accomplish the feat are Detroit's MICKEY COCHRANE, Washington's BUCKY HARRIS, New York's RALPH HOUK, Detroit's HUGHIE JENNINGS and Baltimore's EARL WEAVER.

1981 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP...

- ♦ The Dodgers had the best record in baseball (36-21) in the first half of the 1981 season and finished with the third best overall mark (63-47).

THE OTHER SEASONS...

- ♦ Los Angeles finished the strike-shortened 1994 season with a 58-56 record, good for a 3.5 game lead over the San Francisco Giants in the first season of the new divisional alignment.
- ♦ The 1993 Dodgers made an 18-game improvement in the standings over 1992, tied with Seattle for the third best increase in the majors...San Francisco was first with a 31-game improvement and Philadelphia was second with a 27-game increase in the standings.
- ♦ The 1992 Dodgers suffered through a multitude of injuries and finished with a 63-99 record.
- ♦ In 1991, the Dodgers finished with a 93-69 record and battled the Atlanta Braves for the N.L. West title, until being eliminated the 161st game of the season...the 93 wins represent the second time in four seasons that a Lasorda-managed team has posted at least 90 wins.

LASORDA (Continued)

- ◆ The 1990 Dodgers were unable to catch the fast-starting Cincinnati Reds, but did make a race of the West by notching the best record in the N.L. after the All-Star break (47-34) earning a second-place finish ...Lasorda finished third in the Manager of the Year balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America.
- ◆ 1989 was a letdown after a storybook 1988 campaign as the Dodgers finished fourth (77-83)...the 1986 and 1987 seasons were disappointments, as the Dodgers had identical records of 73-89.
- ◆ In 1985, the Dodgers won the West and took a 2-0 lead on St. Louis in the NLCS, only to lose in six games.
- ◆ The Dodgers finished in fourth place in 1984 with a 79-83 record.
- ◆ The Dodgers won the West in 1983, but lost in four games to the Philadelphia Phillies in the NLCS, a team they had beaten 11 times in 12 games during the regular season.
- ◆ The Dodgers set an all-time National League record of 3.6 million in attendance in 1982, but finished in second place, one game behind Atlanta.
- ◆ In 1980, Lasorda's team battled back in the last three days of the season, sweeping a three-game series from the first-place Houston Astros to force a one-game playoff...the Dodgers lost the playoff game at home to the Astros, 7-1...only four teams in the majors had a better record than the Dodgers (Houston, New York Yankees, Baltimore Orioles and Kansas City Royals).
- ◆ Riddled by injuries in 1979, the Dodgers suffered through a 36-57 first half that saw the club 175 games out of first place, only to rebound and finish with a 43-26 record and a .623 second half, second only to the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates (52-25).

THE MINOR LEAGUES...

- ◆ In Lasorda's eight years of managing in the minors, he won five pennants.
- ◆ Spent his first four seasons with Pocatello and Ogden of the Pioneer League and he had a pennant winning club the last three years.
- ◆ In three seasons as the manager of Spokane of the Pacific Coast League (1969-71) his club never finished lower than third.
- ◆ In 1970 Lasorda was voted the "Minor League Manager of the Year" award by The Sporting News as his team won by 26 games.
- ◆ Lasorda managed at Albuquerque (AAA) in 1972 and his team finished in first place with a 92-56 record...they went on to win the Pacific Coast League championship three games to one over Eugene.
- ◆ Some of the players that Lasorda managed in the minors and sent on to the major leagues include: BILL BUCKNER, RON CEY, JOE FERGUSON, STEVE GARVEY, TOM PACIOREK, LARRY HISLE, CHARLIE HOUGH, VON JOSHUA, DAVEY LOPES, DOUG RAU, BILL RUSSELL and STEVE YEAGER.

LASORDA'S PLAYING CAREER...

- ◆ Lasorda's career as a major league pitcher consisted of two seasons with the Dodgers (1954 and 1955) and one year with Kansas City (1956) ...he pitched in four games for the 1955 Dodgers, the first Dodger team ever to win a World Championship.
- ◆ He pitched in a total of 26 games and compiled a record of 0-4, all the decisions with Kansas City.
- ◆ The southpaw once struck out 25 batters in a 15-inning game while pitching for the Schenectady Blue Jays against Amsterdam in 1948.
- ◆ He holds the all-time International League record for career wins at 125 for the Montreal Royals.

PERSONAL...

- ◆ Spends much of his offseason spreading baseball goodwill and encouragement to thousands as he makes upwards of 100 speeches and appearances to various charities, armed forces and private groups.
- ◆ In 1987, Lasorda and SPARKY ANDERSON were named recipients of the first Milton Richman Memorial Award by the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America.

- ♦ Lasorda and his wife, Jo, reside in Fullerton.

THE "DEAN'S" PLAYING CAREER...

DODGERS HISTORICALLY PROFIT FROM AMATEUR DRAFT

David C. Thomas, a product manager for AMP Incorporated in Greensboro, N.C., published a study of the major league amateur draft for The Baseball Research Journal. He focused on "the players that a given team drafts, signed or unsigned, and ranks the team's drafting performance based on the players' cumulative lifetime major league results in key statistical categories." Thomas broke down the rankings by draft years, decades, and for the overall draft period of 1965 through 1989. After setting up a point system that awarded one point for divisional champs, three points for league champs, and five points for World Series champs, he was able to calculate and rank a team's postseason performance as well. After reviewing the results of the analysis, he found that "the best drafting teams of the 1960's, 1970's, and 1980's were the Dodgers, the Expos, and the Mets, respectively, with the Dodgers holding the best overall results during the entire draft period."

1994 FINAL NOTES

BEST OF THE WEST: The Dodgers were in first place from May 15 to the end of the season...their largest lead was 5.5 games (the last time being on July 3)...the Dodgers finished with a 3.5 game lead over the second place San Francisco Giants...the Dodger lead was down to 0.5 on July 28, but the Dodgers finished the season 9-4...the Dodgers were also in first place for the only other work stoppage in 1981.

BEGINNER'S LOOK: The Dodgers' third consecutive Rookie of the Year Raul Mondesi produced numbers that match-up well with the previous two National League Rookies of the Year...here is a comparison of Mondesi's season after 112 games played to Eric Karros' first 112 games of 1992 and Mike Piazza's first 112 games of 1993:

Player	Avg.	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	SB
Karros (1992)	.260	400	49	104	23	1	17	66	2
Piazza (1993)	.308	412	60	127	17	2	24	75	2
Mondesi (1994)	.306	434	63	133	27	8	16	56	11

MUCH TO SAY ABOUT MONDESI: Rookie Raul Mondesi made quite a first impression on the league...after playing in 112 of the 114 games of the 1994 season, he hit .306 with 63 runs, 27 doubles, eight triples, 16 home runs, 56 RBI, and 11 stolen bases...he hit over the .300 mark from May 13 until the season ended...he had 36 multi-hit games and nine multi-RBI games...he led the team with 27 doubles, 224 total bases, 133 hits, and 434 at-bats...he was second on the team with eight triples, third with 11 stolen bases, and second with a .516 slugging percentage...he also ranked amongst the league's best: he led the league with 16 out-field assists; was third in triples with eight; and tied for 10th with 51 extra base hits.

REJUVENATED WALLACH: Tim Wallach was named N.L. "Comeback Player of the Year" for his 1994 season...he put up his best numbers in four seasons, since hitting .296 with 21 home runs and 98 RBI in 1990 for the Montreal Expos...here's a comparison of 1993 to 1994:

Year	Avg.	AB	R	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	BB	SO
1993	.222	477	42	106	19	1	12	62	32	70
1994	.280	414	68	116	21	1	23	78	46	80

WALLACH DIDN'T SLEEP THROUGH SECOND ACT: Dodger third baseman Tim Wallach hit .375 after the All-Star break...in 26 second half games, the 36-year-old veteran had 36 hits in 96 at-bats with seven doubles, five home runs and 22 RBI...he hit safely in his last six games (12-for-23, .522) to raise his season average to .280.

MARTINEZ DELIVERING GOLDEN GOOSE EGGS: Ramon Martinez led Dodger starters with a 12-7 record...he had a 3.97 ERA and had struck out 119 batters while walking just 56...he had four complete games and a National League-leading three shutouts...he won his four last games and posted a 1.72 ERA during that span (6 ER/31.1 IP)...he had a decision in each of his last 14 consecutive games and was 9-5 in those starts.

HITTING THEIR STRIDE: The Dodgers batted .270 as a team in 1994, nine percentage points higher than the 1993 team (.261)...in 1992 the team batted .248, so the Dodgers have improved 22 percentage points in the past two seasons...the team hit 115 home runs in 114 games, just 15 less than the 1993 team hit in 162 games...the 1993 team total was the most in seven seasons.

HITTIN' THE ROAD: The Dodgers did not slump offensively away from home in 1994...the team collectively hit .275 with 68 home runs in 59 games played...the .275 mark ranked L.A. third in the league...in 1993 the offense hit .248 and collected 64 homers in the entire road season (81 games)...here's a glance at some of the road standouts for 1994:

Player	Avg.	R	2B	3B	HR	RBI
Piazza	.358	34	12	0	11	53
Butler	.348	46	9	4	6	24
Mondesi	.330	33	14	8	6	30
Wallach	.317	37	13	0	16	53

PIAZZA DISPELLES SOPHOMORE JINX: Catcher Mike Piazza ranked among the NL's top-10 in batting (.319), home runs (24) and RBI (92) in 107 games played...his numbers in all three categories were up from his 1993 "Rookie of the Year" totals...in 1994 he had a RBI every 4.4 at-bats and a home run every 16.9 at-bats...the following is a comparison of Piazza's statistics after 107 games in both 1993 and 1994:

Year	Avg.	HR	RBI
1993	.307	23	71
1994	.319	24	92

LIKE ROOMMATE, LIKE ROOMMATE: Mike Piazza became the second Dodger in franchise history to collect 20 home runs or more in his first two consecutive seasons...Eric Karros was the first after accomplishing the feat in 1992 and 1993 (20 and 23 respectively)...Piazza hit 35 in his rookie season and had 24 in 1994.

TOP-NOTCH DODGER: Catcher Mike Piazza led the Dodgers with 24 home runs, 92 RBI, .541 slugging percentage, and 10 intentional walks...he ranked third in runs (64), third in hits (129), second in total bases (219), fourth in doubles (18), and third in on-base percentage (.370)...he ranked amongst league-leaders in several categories as well...he was 10th in the league in batting, 10th in home runs, fifth in RBI, 10th in multi-hit games, eighth in home run ratio, and tied for first in grand slams with two.

RUNNING UP THE CHARTS: Brett Butler collected his 2,000th career hit on May 15 against the Padres with a lead-off bunt single...he became only the 196th player in history to accomplish this feat...he also stole his 500th career base on August 3 against the Padres...on the 2nd of August he scored his 1,200th career run against San Diego...he becomes the 21st player in Major League history to total 2,000 hits, 500 stolen bases, and 1,200 runs in a career...there have been just 25 players before him to reach 2,000 hits and 500 stolen bases in a career.

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR: The Los Angeles Dodgers finished on August 12 with 14 players who developed within the Dodgers' minor league system...this gave them more "home-grown" players on the active roster than any other National League team (Atlanta had 13 and St. Louis had 12), and tied them with the Minnesota Twins for the most in the Major Leagues.

READY IN A PINCH: The Dodgers led all National League teams in pinch-hitting with a .309 batting average...second was the Florida Marlins with a .290 average...leading the way for the Blue Crew was Jeff Treadway with a .481 (13-for-27) pinch-hitting average, with a double and two RBI...his 13 hits tied him for second in the league in pinch-hits...his .481 clip was higher than all National League pinch-hitters with 10 or more at-bats...other reserves who were hot include Chris Gwynn (.333, 11-for-33) with two home runs and seven RBI; switch-hitting Mitch Webster (.290, 9-for-31) with three doubles, one home run, and five RBI; and Dave Hansen (.258, 8-for-31) with a double and three RBI...three of the league's leading pinch-hitters in at-bats were Dodgers.

THE START OF SOMETHING BIG: Dodger starters had a combined ERA of 4.00 (756.2 IP/336 ER) which ranked them fourth in the National League...the three teams with a better starting ERA were the Braves, Expos and the Reds...the starters had a record of 40-35...their four shutouts were tied with Atlanta for the best in the league...starter Ramon Martinez led the staff with a 12-7 record and veteran Orel Hershiser led with a 3.79 ERA...Martinez also led the squad with 170.0 innings pitched and Kevin Gross led with 124 strikeouts.

FILLING THE SEATS: The Dodgers broke the two million mark in attendance for the 22nd straight season...the team was at 2,279,355...12 of the last 17 seasons the Dodgers have had the top attendance in the league...the Dodgers had five sellouts in 1994, with the largest crowd of 54,859 showing up for fireworks on the fourth of July, making it the largest Monday crowd ever at Dodger Stadium and the fifth largest overall regular season crowd...the season average per game was 41,443 in 1994.

BULLPEN FINDS MAJOR RELIEF: Pitchers Rudy Seanez and Ismael Valdes provided relief to the bullpen...Valdes at 20 years of age (the youngest player in the Majors), was 3-1 with a 3.18 ERA in 21 relief appearances...he retired 14 of 18 first batters faced and struck out 28 batters in 28.1 innings pitched...Seanez, 25, was 1-1 with a 2.66 ERA in 17 relief outings...he pitched eight straight scoreless outings (11.0 innings) and was scored on in just four of 17 appearances.

HOT OUT OF THE PEN: The Dodger bullpen was extremely effective late in the season...after July 27, when the team was just one-half game ahead in the division, the relief corps stepped in with a 2.60 ERA (10 ER/34.2 IP)...in the 13 games in which the pen was needed during that span, Dodger relievers allowed just 27 hits, while striking out 27 batters...they walked just 13 batters, three of which were intentional.

TOMMY MOVES INTO TIE FOR 15TH ON ALL-TIME MANAGERIAL LIST: Dodger manager Tommy Lasorda moved into a tie for 15th on the all-time managerial list with the 2-0 victory over the Reds on August 11 at Riverfront...Lasorda has now won a total of 1,480 games, tying him with Earl Weaver...Clark Giffith is 14th on that list with 1,491 managerial wins.

THE ALBUQUERQUE BOMBER: Outfielder Billy Ashley was named the Pacific Coast League Player of the Year and the Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today...he finished with a .345 (134-for-388) batting average with 37 home runs and 105 RBI...the 37 home runs were the most in the minors...he was named the Dodger Minor League Player of the Year, becoming the only Dodger to ever win the award twice (1993).

A ROYAL OUTFIELD: The Albuquerque outfield collectively hit .314 (401-for-1276) with 60 home runs and 245 RBI...here's a glance at their numbers:

Player	Avg.	R	AB	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	SB
Ashley	.345	93	388	134	19	4	37	105	6
Cedeno	.321	84	383	123	18	5	4	49	30
Hollandsworth	.285	80	505	144	31	5	19	91	15

DIALING LONG DISTANCE: The Dodger hitters belted several long balls in 1994...the team had 115 homers in the 114 games played...in 1993 the Dodgers had 130 after the entire 162-game season...the 115 total is more than final totals in 18 Dodger seasons...the team had 30 multi-home run games...they hit four in a game three times (4/17 at Pittsburgh, 4/30 at New York and 6/6 at Florida)...they hit three homers in a game four times...the Dodgers had a home run in 11 straight games from June 19-30.

A 'ONE'DERFUL ADVANTAGE: The Dodgers played 50 one-run games in 1994 and had a 28-22 record in those games...they were 19-6 in one-run games at home...in 1993 the Dodgers were an even 27-27, 18-13 at home...that was an 11.5 game improvement over the 17-40 1992 record.

GOING PAST NINE: The Dodgers were 9-3 in extra-inning games in 1994...they were 7-2 at home and 2-1 on the road...in 1993 the team was 10-12 in games that went past nine innings.

KONERKO IS CONNECTING: Dodger first-round draft choice Paul Konerko showed why he was the top catcher selected in the 1994 Free Agent Draft...for the Yakima Bears he hit .288 (74-for-257) with 15 doubles, two triples, six home runs and a league-leading 58 RBI...he walked 36 times while striking out just 52 times...he was ranked the second best prospect in the Northwest League in the Baseball America poll...he had the third highest RBI total in short-season A-ball.

BROOKLYN AND LOS ANGELES ALL-TIME ROSTER

Brooklyn, an incubator of baseball in the pre-Civil War era, had such strong clubs as the Atlantics, Eckfords and Excelsiors and didn't take to professional baseball until joining the American Association in 1884. The AA champs of 1889 had so many newlyweds on the roster they were known as the Bridegrooms. The club moved into the National League the following year and became dubbed the Trolley Dodgers because of the maze of streetcar tracks in the borough. The name, shortened to Dodgers, became permanent, although during the managerial tenure of Ned Hanlon (1899-1905) it was changed to Superbas, and in Wilbert Robinson's reign (1914-1931) the team was often referred to as the Robins. But the name Dodgers is associated with some of baseball's all-time greats.

HOME RUNS HIT AT DODGER STADIUM ON THE LOGE LEVEL

Only four players have ever hit a home run on the Loge Level (the second level) at Dodger Stadium. Frank Howard was the first to do it for the Dodgers in the 1963 World Series. Howard hit it eight rows up in the fourth game on Oct. 6 and it was estimated at 420 feet down the left field line. The second player to do it was New York Mets' Dave Kingman on June 4, 1976. Kingman hit three home runs in the game and drove in eight runs. He was the first player to hit three home runs in a game against the Dodgers since Willie Stargell did it on June 24, 1965. He later duplicated the feat on May 14, 1978. The third player to reach the Loge Level was Cincinnati's Dave Parker. Parker hit it down the right field line on June 6, 1984. On Sept. 17, 1987 in first game of a doubleheader, Nick Esasky became the fourth player to reach the Loge Level with a solo shot six rows back down the left field line.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears on the shoulder.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

Cat Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Contusion – An injury to muscle and tissue caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Lateral – To the outside of the body.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to reach this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial – Pertaining to or near the middle.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage". There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Sprain – Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint which causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Strain – Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint which causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

DODGERS' 1994 MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

The Los Angeles Dodgers' farm system had another successful season, compiling a 442-389 record (.532 pct.) and winning a Triple-A championship. The Albuquerque Dukes (AAA) won the Pacific Coast League Championship three games to two over the Vancouver Canadians. The Yakima Bears also won the Northwest League (Rookie) regular season title, making it the 18th consecutive season that a Dodger minor league affiliate has played in the postseason.

Albuquerque outfielder Billy Ashley was named the Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today, selected as the PCL Player of the Year and voted the Dodger minor league Player of the Year. Ashley batted .345 with 19 doubles, four triples, 105 RBI, 93 runs scored and a minor league-leading 37 home runs. Albuquerque pitcher Greg Hansell was named the Dodger minor league Pitcher of the Year as he posted a 10-2 record with a 2.99 ERA and eight saves. In 123.1 innings pitched, he gave up 109 hits, 31 walks and struck out 101 batters.

Eight different Dodger minor leaguers were named to postseason All-Star teams and the Dodgers led all organizations with 14 players rated among the Top 10 prospects in the 17 minor leagues in a Baseball America poll of minor league managers and coaches.

STARGELL BLASTS ONLY ONES TO CLEAR DODGER STADIUM

Pittsburgh Pirates first baseman Willie Stargell is the only player ever to hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium—and he did it twice. Stargell hit the first ball on Aug. 5, 1969 (off Alan Foster) and it traveled over the Right Field Pavilion landing 506 feet, 6 inches away. The second blast came on May 8, 1973 (off Andy Messersmith) and it hit the Right Field Pavilion roof and landed 470 feet away from home plate.

DODGER STADIUM HISTORY

The 1995 season will mark the 34th year the Los Angeles Dodgers have called Dodger Stadium home.

For more than three decades, the beauty of Dodger Stadium has awed spectators. To the south is a breathtaking view of downtown Los Angeles; to the north and east are the green, tree-lined Elysian hills; beyond are the purple San Gabriel Mountains.

Dodger Stadium seats 56,000 and has parking for 16,000 autos on 21 terraced lots adjacent to and at about the same elevations as the five different seating levels. Although it is 33 years old, there are few stadia which look newer or are better maintained. The stadium is kept in immaculate condition by a full-time grounds crew and maintenance staff. More than 3,400 trees cover the 300 acres of beautiful landscape, which is maintained by a full-time staff of five gardeners.

Inside, 87,372,223 million fans have watched Dodger games at Dodger Stadium over the 33 years, an average of more than 2.6 million fans per year. Dodger fans have witnessed 2,618 regular season games at Dodger Stadium, including a 1,508-1,110 (.576) record posted by the Dodgers. In 1978, Dodger Stadium became the first ballpark to host more than 3 million fans in a single season as 3,347,845 people attended Dodger games that year.

Following another 3 million attendance year in 1980, the Dodgers set the all-time Major League season attendance mark in 1982 with 3,608,881. Toronto, Colorado and Atlanta have since topped that mark, but the Dodgers can also boast seasons of more than 3 million in attendance in 1983, '84, '85, '86, '90, '91 and '93. The 1991 attendance of 3,348,170 was the third-highest total ever in the National League. Seven of the top 10 single-season attendance figures in the N.L. have been recorded at Dodger Stadium.

Dodger Stadium is the only privately-financed stadium built since the construction of Yankee Stadium in 1923. When the late Walter O'Malley and architect Emil Praeger designed this home for the Dodgers, they set the stage for baseball's most popular and beautiful showplace. The fun started on April 10, 1962, when the stadium's gates first opened. The next day, April 11, the Dodgers defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2, for their first win in their new home. That year, 2,755,184 viewed games at the new ballpark.

Since then, Dodger Stadium has hosted eight World Series. The Dodgers have won World Championships in 1963, '65, '81 and '88; National League pennants in 1966, '74, '77 and '78; and N.L. Western Division crowns in 1983 and '85.

Although baseball is the only sport played at Dodger Stadium, the park has been the site of numerous momentous events, including the Major League All-Star Game in 1980. Dodger Stadium was the home of the 1984 Olympic Games baseball competition. At that time, it marked baseball's greatest involvement in the Olympics, as eight teams competed in the exhibition tournament.

The Olympic spirit returned to Los Angeles again in 1991, as Dodger Stadium hosted the Opening Ceremonies for the United States Olympic Festival. Later in the summer, the stadium showcased the top amateur baseball players from around the world in the second annual International Baseball Association World All-Star Game.

Pope John Paul II celebrated Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. Entertainers such as The Beatles, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton and U2 have also performed at the stadium. One of the world's greatest entertainment events was staged at Dodger Stadium in 1994 when internationally renowned tenors Jose Carreras, Plácido Domingo and Luciano Pavarotti reunited for a spectacular concert performance "Encore - The Three Tenors" with conductor Zubin Mehta.

In addition to those events, Los Angeles has hosted Major League Baseball at its finest. Through 33 glorious years, some of the game's most memorable moments have taken place at Dodger Stadium.

DODGER STADIUM RAINOUTS

The Los Angeles Dodgers have been rained out 15 times at Dodger Stadium since 1962. The Dodgers have not been rained out at home since the 1988 season when the Dodgers were rained out on three consecutive days for the first time since moving to Dodger Stadium. Prior to 1976, the Dodgers were washed out only once – on April 21, 1967, vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. The 1967 rainout ended a streak of 737 consecutive games at Dodger Stadium without a postponement. The second rainout on April 12, 1976, stopped a string of 724 straight games. The Dodgers begin the 1995 season with a streak of 535 games without a rainout at Dodger Stadium.

RULES OF INTEREST

Player Limits: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits. Highest batting average and 502 or more at-bats qualifies for the batting championship.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched. Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched qualifies for the pitching championship.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total number of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining On Base Percentage: Add the total number of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Consecutive Hitting Streaks: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit baseman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Trading Regulations: Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of the preceding season.

DIAMOND VISION

The Dodgers installed an entirely new state-of-the-art 875-square-foot (25' by 35') video display system in 1991 that utilizes a higher resolution screen and advanced graphics to show replays, statistics and highlights of game action. The Dodgers' Mitsubishi Diamond Vision Mark III is virtually the same size and shape as the previous model, which was the first of its kind in existence when it debuted at Dodger Stadium on July 8, 1980 when the Dodgers hosted the 51st All-Star Game. The updated version, however, provides greater efficiency and improved picture quality.

The control room, located in the press box area, has also been remodeled to feature the most modern broadcast equipment in existence. The production and editing facility utilizes three cameras, five video tape machines and high-tech special effects equipment. A team of 11 people is required to operate the system throughout each game.

Specially produced entertainment segments and news about the Dodgers, other major league teams and events throughout the world is also featured on the new screen.

Mitsubishi has been an innovator of video board systems for stadiums throughout the world, and the Dodgers have taken advantage of its technology to improve the popular Dodger Stadium landmark, re-creating larger-than-life action above left field.

The scoreboard above right field and the auxiliary scoreboards behind first and third bases has also been replaced with models manufactured by Fair-Tron. Although electronically modernized, they are exact replicas.

THE TOP 50 NATIONAL LEAGUE ATTENDANCE MARKS

The 1994 season marked the 22nd straight season in which the Dodgers totaled at least two million home fans in a season (1973-94). The Dodgers have reached the two million mark 30 times – the most by any Major League team. The Dodgers established a National League record in 1982 with 3,608,881 fans and also had the then third largest total ever in 1991 with 3,348,170 guests. The National League implemented a new system to count fans in 1993 and the Rockies recorded the largest single season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first major league season. The Dodgers hold the National League record for most three million plus fans in a season having done it 10 times including in 1978 (3,347,845), 1980 (3,249,287), 1983 (3,510,313), 1984 (3,134,824), 1985 (3,264,593), 1986 (3,023,208) and 1990 (3,002,396). The Dodgers became the first team to play before five million fans total – home and road – in 1978 as the total reached 5,494,204. The Dodgers have since accomplished this figure 12 more times as they have attracted a record 5,859,072 fans in 1982 as well as 5,747,526 in 1983, 5,311,656 in 1980, 5,069,383 in 1984, 5,205,941 in 1985, 5,099,954 in 1986, 5,135,610 in 1988, 5,113,671 in 1989, 5,119,253 in 1990, 5,835,578 in 1991, 5,834,250 in 1993 and 5,347,425 in 1994. The Dodgers have averaged more than 2.5 million fans a season since coming to Los Angeles in 1958. The Dodgers hit the million mark in 22 dates in 1981, the two million mark in 46 dates in 1982 and the three million mark in 67 dates in 1982 – all three established then Major League records. Through the 1992 season, attendance in the National League counted the number of fans in attendance, and the American League counted total tickets sold. Both leagues currently count total tickets sold. The top 50 National League home attendance marks:

VIN SCULLY

One of the most recognizable personalities in sports broadcasting, Vin Scully, the voice of the Dodgers, holds the longest service and the longest consecutive service of any current major league broadcaster for one team.

Scully began his broadcasting career at Fordham University announcing Fordham baseball, basketball and football games over the school's radio station. He was also a Fordham outfielder for two seasons. Just a year after graduating from college, Scully joined the Dodger broadcasting team in Brooklyn in 1950, merging with Hall of Fame announcer Red Barber and Connie Desmond.

Scully is a master of the English language and a favorite of Dodger fans, who in 1976, voted him the "Most Memorable Personality" in L.A. Dodger history. From New York to Los Angeles and everywhere in between, Scully has covered many of baseball's thrilling games, moments and achievements. Among them are:

- ◆ Three perfect games. (Don Larsen-1956, Sandy Koufax-1965, Dennis Martinez-1991)
- ◆ 16 no-hitters.
- ◆ Johnny Podres' shutout of the Yankees in Game 7 of the 1955 World Series giving the Dodgers their first World Championship.
- ◆ The Dodgers' first game in Los Angeles in 1958.
- ◆ 18-strikeout games by Sandy Koufax in 1959 and 1962 and Ramon Martinez in 1990.
- ◆ The Yankee-Dodger exhibition game honoring Roy Campanella before a major league record 93,103 fans in the Los Angeles Coliseum.
- ◆ The Dodgers' playoff win in 1959 over the Milwaukee Braves and World Series victory over the Chicago White Sox to give them their first World Championship in L.A.
- ◆ The Dodgers sweeping the New York Yankees in the 1963 World Series.
- ◆ L.A. Dodger World Championship teams of 1959, 1965, 1981 and 1988.
- ◆ Don Drysdale's scoreless inning streak in 1968.
- ◆ Hank Aaron's 715th career home run in 1974.
- ◆ Orel Hershiser's 59 consecutive scoreless innings in 1988.
- ◆ Kirk Gibson's dramatic game-winning home run in Game 1 of the 1988 World Series.

In addition to his work on Dodger baseball, Scully announces the World Series for the CBS Radio Network. He has broadcast 12 World Series and six All-Star Games for television. He worked for NBC for seven years covering baseball and golf and has recently begun working with ABC Sports.

Scully's play-by-play descriptions have earned him numerous honors and accolades. His most coveted was in 1982 when he joined his mentor, Red Barber, in the broadcast wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as he was selected as the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. In January, Scully received the William J. Slocum Award for his long and meritorious service. Here are some other honors which he has received:

- ◆ Named outstanding sportscaster in the nation four times by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.
- ◆ Named California Sportscaster of the Year 20 times, including 1993.
- ◆ Inducted into the American Sportscasters Hall of Fame in 1992.
- ◆ "Look" Magazine Award for outstanding coverage of the 1959 World Series.
- ◆ "Broadcaster of the Year" in 1984 by the Southern California Broadcasters Association.

- ♦ "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1985 by the American Sportscasters Association.
- ♦ "Ronald Reagan Media Award" from the United States Sports Academy in 1987.
- ♦ Has won the 1991, 1992 and 1994 "Sportscaster of the Year" award by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association.
- ♦ "1991 Radio Play-by-Play Award and "1993 Baseball Play-by-Play Award" by the SCSBA.
- ♦ 1992 Los Angeles Area Governors Emmy Award by the Board of Governors of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for his special contribution to television in Los Angeles.
- ♦ "Voice of Vision" award at the 1992 Vision Awards for his "incredible gift of painting vivid word pictures so those without sight can also see Dodger baseball."
- ♦ Had a star placed on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 1982.

ROSS PORTER

Now in his 19th season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team, Ross Porter set a major league record for the longest consecutive play-by-play by one announcer when he called the action of a 22-inning game between the Dodgers and Expos on Aug. 23, 1989. He worked the six-hour and 14-minute game alone in Montreal. Since the first broadcast of a major league game in 1922, there have been only six games longer than 22 innings. Porter's broadcast was the only time one person has announced that many innings. For that broadcast, Porter was honored with a Special Achievement Award by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association.

Porter broadcast the 1977 and 1978 World Series on CBS Radio to a worldwide network of more than 600 stations, broadcast the 1988 World Series for Dodger flagship station KABC and announced the 1984 National League Championship Series for the CBS Radio Network. Prior to joining the Dodgers in 1977, Porter spent 10 years as a sportscaster for KNBC-TV in Los Angeles, winning many honors for his nightly programs, including an Emmy. A play-by-play announcer since he was 14, Porter is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. He broadcast NFL games for NBC-TV for seven years and currently broadcasts college games. During the offseason, Porter hosts Dodger Focus on KABC. Porter is the only announcer to broadcast the games of a World Series champion (Dodgers, 1981 and 1988) and an NCAA basketball champion (UNLV, 1990). Porter also has one of the 24 votes to determine the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the top defensive back in college football. He is the host of KABC Dodgertalk pre- and postgame shows for which he earned the Tom Harmon Award for Radio Sports Anchor in 1992 by the SCSBA and the Radio Talk Show Host award by the SCSBA for 1992 and 1993.

RICK MONDAY

Rick Monday begins his second full season as a Dodger broadcaster. Monday joined the Dodger broadcast team in July 1993. Monday will also serve as weekend host for KABC Radio's DodgerTalk show.

Monday began his active broadcasting career as sports anchor on KTTV (Channel 11) in Los Angeles from 1985-88. He also worked on the Dodger cable television games and hosted the pregame show, Dodger Central, for which he was nominated for an Emmy Award in 1988. In that same year, he served as commentator for the College World Series championship game on CBS. In 1989, he moved to the San Diego Padres calling play-by-play and providing color commentary on radio and television for four seasons.

Monday led Arizona State to the 1965 NCAA Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors. The Kansas City Athletics chose him as the first player ever in the initial Major League Draft in 1965. He made his major league debut in 1966 and spent six seasons with the A's and five seasons with the Chicago Cubs. In 1977, he joined the Dodgers, and in eight seasons, helped them to a World Championship and three N.L. pennants. Overall, he compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and appeared in five League Championship Series and two All-Star Games. Monday is best remembered for two special moments: On April 25, 1976 at Dodger Stadium while playing center field for Chicago, he ran into left field to rescue the American flag from a possible burning by a pair of protestors. In 1981, Monday delivered the game winning-home run in Game 5 of the N.L. Championship Series to send the Dodgers to the World Series.

JAIME JARRIN

"The Spanish Voice of the Dodgers," Jaime Jarrin embarks on his 37th season covering the team, dating back to 1959. He has been the No. 1 man in the booth since 1973. Jaime Jarrin was honored in his native

Ecuador in January 1992 with the highest medal of honor to non-military personnel, the La Gran Cruz al Merito en El Grado de Comendado. In 1990, he was named by Hispanic Business Magazine as one of the Top 100 Influential Hispanics in the United States. He was the first Latin American to win The Golden Mike Award in 1970 and 1971. Jarrin was in charge of all Spanish radio coverage and production of the 23rd Olympic Games in Los Angeles in 1984. He has traveled the globe broadcasting world championship boxing matches, calling over 30 title bouts for radio and television throughout Latin America. Jarrin is also a member of the CBS Hispanic Radio Network, broadcasting the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series. He is vice president, News and Sports, of Lotus Broadcasting Corp., whose station KWKW is the flagship station of the Dodgers' Spanish radio network.

Jarrin studied philosophy, letters, journalism and broadcasting at Central University of Ecuador in Quito. Jarrin's son, Jorge, covers traffic for both English and Spanish language radio stations in Los Angeles.

RENE CARDENAS

A pioneer on the Dodgers' first Spanish language broadcasts from 1958-61, Rene Cardenas begins his 18th season and second tour of duty in the Dodgers' Spanish broadcast booth. He rejoined the club in 1982 and was reunited with Jaime Jarrin, with whom he had worked in his earlier stint with the Dodgers. Cardenas left the team after the 1961 season to become the director of the Spanish network and all broadcast operations for the Houston Astrodome. After 15 years of handling Spanish broadcasts for the Astros, Cardenas returned to his native Managua, Nicaragua, where he worked in radio and television as well as serving for a time as sports editor of La Prensa, the largest newspaper in Nicaragua. He announced baseball and covered various championship boxing matches throughout the world. Because of political unrest in Nicaragua, Cardenas and his wife, Jilma, were forced to flee the country in 1979 and returned to Houston. In 1981, Cardenas worked the Spanish broadcasts for the Texas Rangers and served as program manager for a Houston Spanish radio station, a position he held until he rejoined the Dodgers. His player interviews during the 1988 World Series were heard nationally over the Univision National Network of Spanish language TV stations. In 1959, Rene announced his first playoff series when the Dodgers beat the Milwaukee Braves for the National League championship and his first World Series in Los Angeles, when the Dodgers beat the Chicago White Sox. In 1960, he broadcasted his first All-Star Game for The Gillette Cavalcade of Sports in San Francisco. In 1992, Cardenas was honored with a prestigious award by the Nicaraguan government for his part in the development of baseball in Nicaragua and throughout the world. Rene's grandfather, Adan Cardenas (president of Nicaragua from 1884-87), helped sponsor the beginning of baseball in Nicaragua in 1891. His uncle, Adolfo Cardenas, was on the first team.

RADIO BROADCASTS: All Dodger games may be heard over the Dodger radio network. Vin Scully, Ross Porter and Rick Monday call all the action over KABC (790 AM). Jaime Jarrin and Rene Cardenas handle the play-by-play for all games in Spanish on KWKW (1330 AM).

THE DODGERS' SPRING HOME

DODGERTOWN

Post Office Box 2887

The Dodgers celebrate their 48th season at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, Florida this year, including the 42nd season at Holman Stadium.

It was in 1948 that the Dodgers set up camp in Vero Beach at the invitation of local businessman Bud Holman, after whom Holman Stadium is named. Holman's brainstorm came after the United States government turned over a naval air station to the city of Vero Beach following World War II.

Vero Beach needed a tenant for the facility and the Dodgers were looking for a spring home after leading a nomadic existence. In the spring of 1948, the former naval air station grounds and barracks were invaded by 600 players from the Dodger organization.

The players who spent that long-ago spring at Dodgertown, as it came to be known almost from the outset, would not recognize the facility today. Replacing the old barracks is a modern 90-unit villa. Also, a 23,000-square-foot administration building was constructed on the site of the former headquarters building in 1974. The structure includes a major league clubhouse, minor league clubhouse, medical department, dining room and kitchen, main lobby, canteen, recording studio, photo dark room, interview room, stadium club lounge, media working area, two trainers' rooms, two equipment rooms and two laundry rooms.

In 1990, Dodgertown unveiled a newly constructed 15,000-square-foot multi-purpose building, housing four indoor batting tunnels, an exercise room containing the latest in training equipment, a video room to be used by Dodger instructors for a teaching area and baseball administrative offices for Dodger executives during spring training. These offices are also used as meeting rooms for the conference center the rest of the year.

The Dodgers play their exhibition games at Holman Stadium, dedicated in 1953, which has a capacity of 6,500. The Brooklyn Dodgers played their first game at this site against the Philadelphia A's on March 11, 1953. In addition to Holman Stadium, there is a row of outdoor batting cages and six practice fields, four full fields and two half fields.

Even the recreation facilities at Dodgertown have undergone radical change since that initial spring. Two golf courses – an 18-holer called Dodger Pines Country Club and a nine-hole layout called Dodgertown Golf Club – outline the complex. The Pines' clubhouse is complete with locker rooms, dining room, lounge and pro shop.

Dodger personnel also have the use of a swimming pool, four all-weather tennis courts, a game room and a theater in which different movies are shown each night.

Dodgertown, the only privately owned training camp in the country, also includes a 70-acre citrus grove, 45 residences on the golf course perimeter and a conference center. Since 1965, the Dodgers have purchased 450 acres from the city of Vero Beach.

Besides Dodger spring training, Dodgertown is a conference center managed by Harrison Conference Centers. The conference center is designed to provide the proper environment for business meetings and the most intensive learning objectives. There are 20 specially-designed meeting rooms, featuring the latest in audio-visual equipment. The recreation program includes golf, tennis, baseball, swimming, basketball, volleyball and jogging trails. Dodgertown accommodates up to 180 conferees. The facility has more than 250 employees.

This year, the Samsung Lions from Korea will make their fourth visit to Dodgertown to join the Dodgers in spring training while preparing for their season in Korea.

Last spring, the baseball team from Waseda University in Japan trained for two weeks at Dodgertown, marking the first time an amateur baseball team had been invited to Spring Training by the Dodgers.

Eight professional teams from Asia have trained during the spring at Dodgertown and the Dodgers were the first major league team to host a team from Korea in spring training.

The Dodgers have also entertained representatives from all over the globe, including hosting the Nigerian National Youth Team in 1992.

Dodgertown has been utilized by numerous NFL teams including the Kansas City Chiefs in 1991, to prepare for postseason games. After Hurricane Andrew devastated the Florida coast in 1993, Dodgertown became the home to the University of Miami football team prior to its regular season opener. The Dodgers also hold a rookie camp in June at Vero Beach prior to the newly drafted players reporting to their assigned teams.

Dodgertown also provides the setting for two adult fantasy baseball camps, one held in November and the second in February that feature instruction by former Dodger greats and Hall of Famers.

The 1995 season will be the 16th year that Holman Stadium has served as the summer home of the Vero Beach Dodgers of the Class A Florida State League. The 1991 Vero Beach Dodgers set the club attendance record with a total of 95,300 fans in 63 home games. This total is remarkable since Vero Beach (population 17,350) is one of the smallest towns in America with a professional baseball club. The Vero Beach Dodgers hosted the 1991 Florida State League All-Star Game at Holman Stadium.
